

Here's an idea or two of things to do

ON YOUR OWN

Ernestine & Amanda Series

The Ernestine & Amanda Scrapbooks include information about people and events significant to their lives and times, some of which are listed below. Check out the sites to get more information.

W. E. B. DU BOIS

Visit this site to find out why Ernestine and Amanda's school was named for one of the most outstanding Americans of his time.

http://www.africawithin.com/bios/web\_dubois.htm

IDA B. WELLS

Ernestine chose this woman as the subject for the essay she wrote to enter the contest. Visit this site to understand why.

<http://www.webster.edu/~woolfilm/idabwells.html>

KATHERINE DUNHAM

Go to these sites to read, see, and hear why Amanda's dance teacher used the techniques of this great dancer and choreographer.

<http://memory.loc.gov/cocoon/ahas/html/dunham/dunham-timeline.html>

<http://www.pbs.org/wnet/freetodance/biographies/dunham.html>

BROWN V BOARD OF EDUCATION

Find out more about his case that was brought before the United States Supreme Court in 1954—one year before Ernestine and Amanda met. You will see how the high court's landmark decision affected not only them but also children and schools across America.

<http://www.nps.gov/brvb/>

<http://www.lib.umich.edu/exhibits/brownarchive/>

<http://www.pbs.org/jefferson/enlight/brown.htm>