

Here's an idea or two of things to do

ON YOUR OWN

From Miss Ida's Porch

Most of the stories shared on MISS IDA'S PORCH were about Marion Anderson. Find out more about this internationally famous singer at the Websites listed. The first is Marian Anderson's official site.

<http://www.mariananderson.org/>

On this site, click on "Singing to the Nation" to hear Marian Anderson sing "America" as she did at the Lincoln Memorial on that historic Sunday.

<http://www.library.upenn.edu/exhibits/rbm/anderson/>

Go to this site to read and listen to an interview with Marian Anderson.

http://www.pbs.org/newshour/bb/remember/1997/anderson_2-26a.html

A story about the multi-talented EDWARD KENNEDY ELLINGTON was also shared on Miss Ida's Porch. Read more about the man best known as "The Duke" at his official site.

<http://www.dukeellington.com>

Another famous person mentioned on MISS IDA'S PORCH was Lena Horne. Find out more about this timeless artist at the site below.

http://www.pbs.org/wnet/americanmasters/database/horne_1.html

Everybody has a story to share, including you! Perhaps it's a story you can tell on your porch, or around the kitchen table... or any place you happen to be with a family member or a friend or two.

Hmmmm...

Think about it.